

MARYLAND HALL
art for all

Job Announcement

Tessitura /IT Administrator

Local arts center seeks experienced professional to provide support for Tessitura database and general IT needs. Must have expertise in Tessitura including set up and maintenance; knowledge of SQL and general programming language; knowledge of Artifax Event Management software helpful; basic knowledge of Drupal helpful; strong attention to detail, excellent interpersonal skills and ability to manage multiple tasks. Salary and hours negotiable. Send resume and cover letter with salary requirements (required) by June 30 to: danderson@mdhallarts.org. No calls please. EOE.

About Maryland Hall for the Creative Arts

Founded in 1979, Maryland Hall is located in a historic landmark building in Annapolis, Maryland, and serves as the community's gathering place for the arts. Through year-round classes, performances, exhibits, tours, workshops and demonstrations, people of all ages discover the transformative power of the arts. www.marylandhall.org